

HOME ALONE NIGHTMARE

BY: D'ANGELO PERKINS

It was 6:30 in the evening, and my parents said that they are going away for the month. They also told me to not open the front door for strangers and to use a gun just in case someone tries to break in. They gave me a kiss, and a wave goodbye. At 8:30pm, I felt a little hungry, so I went into the kitchen to heat up my leftover pizza and got myself a root beer soda. I turned on the T.V and watched some Dragon Ball Z as I ate my dinner and drank my soda. I turned off the T.V when I felt tired. Then suddenly, I heard evil laughter coming from outside. I felt scared, but I decided to not open the front door for any strangers. Then I heard some loud banging on the door and some more laughing. I was very frightened. I remembered what my parents said about using a gun, so I went to my dad's room, and grabbed a shotgun. I was ready to kill the person who was making all that noise on the front door. I said, "Come out, come out, wherever you are! I have a shotgun, ready to shoot you! So, prepare yourself!" That stranger, who kicked the front door so violently, appears to be the ultimate creepypasta named, SONIC.EXE!! He let out an outraged ROOOOOOOOOOAR!! I was so nervous to use the shotgun as Sonic.EXE came up the stairs slowly with the scariest smile any creepypasta has ever smiled. When he got close to me, I closed my eyes, gulped, and shot him with the shotgun. I opened my eyes, and Sonic.EXE was just standing there, menacingly as he looked at his body totally bruised up by the shotgun shots. I shivered in fear to see Sonic.EXE very VERY ANGRY!! He roared the loudest and scariest roar as scary as a tiger cat. I closed my eyes and defended myself, and I saw that he was gone. I stopped shivering and calmed down. That's when Sonic.EXE appeared right behind me and said, "I WILL RIP YOUR HEART OUT!!" I turned around and screamed so loud. Then Sonic.EXE beat me up and pinned me to the ground. I was severely bruised up and I cried so hard, then I said, "Why are you doing this?" Sonic.EXE showed his creepiest grin and said, "Because, I AM GOD!!!!!!" Then, I was killed while my scream echoed, and Sonic.EXE laughed the scariest laugh ever, he disappeared. He left me on the floor, very unconscious, and I was never to be seen again...
